Moralists may prate, and doctors prose, and science shout from the house-top, but just so long as the birds sing and the flowers bloom, and a maiden's lips are cherry-red, and a young man's eyes look love, just so long the lads and lassies will kiss—and kiss again.

And where, good men, is the harm if the kissers and kisses be healthy, and true love stands sponsor. It is only when ill-health has bleached the sweet cleanliness of youth that death lurks upon its lips. The deadly germs of dread consumption are harmless as June-time butterflies to the young man or woman who is thoroughly clean, sweet and healthy in every fiber and tissue. The germs of disease only attack that which is already partly decayed.

There is a great medicine that is a sure and certain protection against all germs and a speedy cure for all germ diseases. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It corrects all faults of the digestion. It aids assimilation. It fills the blood with the vital, life-giving elements of the food. It builds sweet, clean, healthy tissues in every part of the body. It drives out all disease germs. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of bronchial, throat and lung affection if taken in time. All good medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing "just as good."

Mr. Jos. Henderson Dirblun, of 544 Josephine Street, New Orleans, La., writes: "I was sitting for some two years, suffering from dyspepsia, a tired feeling, and loss of energy and appetite. I tried one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and found great relief. I took two more bottles, three in all, and one or two of the 'Pellies' when I was in good health again. I recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to do all that it is claimed to do."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them. No other pills are "just as good."

What Is a Day?

Nine persons out of 10—yes, 999 out of every 1,000—if asked "how long it takes the earth to turn once on its axis" would answer 24 hours, and to the question, "How many times does it turn on its axis in the course of the year?" the answer would be 365 1/4 times. Both answers are wrong.

It requires but 23 hours and 56 minutes for the earth to make one complete turn, and it makes 366 1/4 turns during the year. The error springs from a wrong idea of what is meant by a day.

The day is not, as is commonly supposed, the time required by the earth to make one turn on its axis, but the interval between two successive passages of the sun across the meridian—that is to say, the time which elapses after the sun is seen exactly south in its diurnal course through the heavens before it is again seen in that position.

Now, in consequence of the earth's revolution in its orbit, or path round the sun, the sun has the appearance of moving very slowly in the heavens in a direction from east to west. At noon tomorrow the sun will be a short distance to the east of the point in the heavens at which it is seen at noon today, so that when the earth has made one complete turn it will still have to turn four minutes longer before the sun can again be seen exactly south.

Chinatown's Lottery.

Chinamen are natural gamblers, and in every city in this country where they congregate they have a lottery.

The manner of conducting the lottery is characteristic. Square yellow papers are circulated about Chinatown. They contain 80 characters within a green border. There is no name or location on the sheet, but every one knows its office and use. Translated literally, these characters represent some natural phenomena, such as "Heaven and earth," "Fish swim," "Birds fly," "The world is vast," "Clouds rise" and other commonplace of daily life, and so general are they that the most ordinary dream may find here a character for interpretation.

Twenty characters are chosen and crossed and the wager laid. When the drawing comes, the man who guesses three of these numbers gets his money back; five, he wins double his stake, and ten, 800 times the amount paid in. The stakes run from 10 cents to $5. The highest and lowliest inhabitant of the quarter delights in the bah-ka-poo and plays it with almost religious persistency.

Prayer book marks of purple or white moire ribbon have mountings of silver or gold. A silver or gold heart holds the ends of three pieces of ribbon. On the end of one is an anchor, on the second a cross and on the third a crown.

Flowers, both natural and artificial, are much employed for the trimming of evening costumes, being used in bunches, garlands and sprays about all portions of the gown.

The first duel known to have taken place upon American soil occurred in 1680, when Edward Doty and Edward Leicester, servants of a New England colonist named Hopkins, fought over some trifling matter with swords. Neither was seriously injured, but both were severely punished by the provincial authorities.

"A Female Stranger."

In St. Paul's churchyard, in Alexandria, Va., is a marble tombstone bearing this inscription:

To the memory of a female stranger:
How loved, how honored once avails thee not;
To whom related or by whom begot;
A heap of dust alone remains of thee.

'Tis all thou art, and all the proof shall be.

This strange inscription raised much conjecture. The facts, as nearly as known, are that in May, 1816, a man and a beautiful girl, accompanied by a valet, arrived at Alexandria in an English vessel. They shunned every one. Five months afterward the girl died. The husband staid long enough to erect a monument, left a sum of money to repair it and then sailed away and was never heard of again. Several novels have been founded upon this sad and romantic incident.

An Uncomfortable Superstition.

A very uncomfortable superstition prevails in the Minich province in Egypt. Whenever a pigeon house is to be made, the fellahin consider that the pottery used in its construction should be baked by the help of a human body. A pigeon house was to be erected recently at the village of Beni Somrook, in this province, and this necessary preliminary of its construction was not forgotten. A young child was first caught and in spite of its struggles was put in an oven and burned alive while the pottery was baked with the aid of this human holocaust. Two men, one of them a potter by trade, have been arrested on suspicion of having taken part in this old custom. Cairo Egyptian Gazette.

License Resolution.

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS of Washoe county, Nevada, under and by virtue of the authority in them vested by an act of the Legislature of the State of Nevada, entitled "An act authorizing the licensing of itinerant and unsettled merchants and traders," approved March 14, 1899, do resolve as follows:

Resolved, That from and after the 15th day of May, A. D. 1899, and until the further resolution of this board a monthly license of seventy-five dollars be required and collected of each itinerant or unsettled merchant or trader in the county of Washoe, State of Nevada.

Resolved, That this resolution be published in the "Nevada State Journal," a newspaper published in Reno, Nevada, for one week prior to said day 15, 1899.

By order of the Board,
H. H. BECK, Chairman.

OF COURSE THEY DO.

"An eastern paper tells us that the American and European bankers are urging upon Mexico the desirability of adopting the gold standard. That is no doubt true. Mexico is a perpetual reproof to those American and European bankers who like to talk about 'sound money,' the impossibility of ever making silver good money, and the immense losses which a nation is subjected to that uses silver. Fortunately, there is a very level-headed old chap at the head of affairs in Mexico. Then the manufacturing interests of that country all oppose the change, explaining that the gold premium has the effect of stimulating exports and barring their imports of merchandises. The history of the country during the past fifteen years, during which time the United States has suffered three or four panics and a loss of property which cannot be estimated, is a perpetual notice to the bankers of Europe and the United States of how much wrong they have worked upon the nations that have taken their advice and thrown away half the world's money. They will not prevail with Mexico, and in the meantime Mexico is advancing more swiftly than any country in the world except our own, and the advance in our own country is due, not to the gold standard, but in spite of it. It is due to the working forces of our people, the perfection of machinery, the energy that stops at nothing, the transportation facilities of the country and the fact that the nations on both sides of the sea need our food.

Twenty-five years ago our country was exceedingly prosperous. The fields and the mines were yielding immense products. We had no army to support, no navy of any consequence to maintain, no court to absorb the wealth of the nation. Our nation presented a spectacle which the world looked upon with envy. At that time Mexico was deeply in debt, without revenues, without internal improvements, with very few manufactures, with mining at a low ebb. She began to advance. Her advance has been without interruption and has been with accelerating momentum all the time, with the result that her debts are paid, her treasury is full; she has spent nearly a thousand millions of dollars on internal improvements, she has built great manufacturing plants, and though this has been accomplished by 12,000,000 of people, only about two millions and a half are anything but poor.

"In the meantime property has fallen in the United States 50 per cent. Thousands and tens of thousands of men have been ruined. The working hosts of the United States, that portion which owns property and employ labor, for ten years of that time worked for nothing but board and clothes. The difference is simply in the different fiscal policies of the two countries. No wonder that Mexico's prosperity seems like a reproach to American and European bankers. It is a perpetual advertisement to them of their own perfidy. No wonder they want the standard there changed."

The above is from the last issue of the Salt Lake Tribune, which a week or so ago announced its abandonment of the silver cause and its return to the party of gold, trusts and everything else which is reproved by Mexico's prosperity under a double standard. If Judge Goodwin continues to advocate such doctrine, we fear that he will not prove a welcome addition to the Republican party or be allotted a conspicuous or comfortable seat in the councils. We are quite certain that none of the Tribune's Republican contemporaries will copy the above article approvingly, as the Journal does, but will claim him, as some of them already have, as a repentant bimetalist convinced of his error, and an humble suppliant for reinstatement to his former position under the Republican banner. As a reformer in the enemy's camp we fear that he will make but little headway, but as a fire brand he may perhaps prove a howling success.

The Court of Inquiry on the bad beef charges, as was expected, exonerates the War Department and censures General Miles for not making his allegations at the right time. Evidently the "right time" in the estimation of the court would have been after the next Presidential election.

In all probability an extra session of Congress will be called in September or October to deal with the Philippine question.

The latest is a steel trust. They all seem to be of that class, with a slight difference in the spalling.

The telegraphic dispatches of one day tell us that some concern in the east has raised the price of wages five or ten cents a day, and the next news is that the prices of stoves, tinware, crockery and other manufactured articles have been increased from 10 to 15 per cent. Further comes the news of strikes by hundreds of employees in the immediate vicinity of where the wages have been raised. Yet there can be no doubt about the good times that are being experienced by the people of the east, can there?

The Republican party is on the eve of political bankruptcy, from the same cause that has brought thousands of business houses to failure—too much trust.

Edward Atkinson of Boston has addressed an open letter to the U. S. Attorney General denying that he has sent any communication of any kind to any private soldier or regimental officer in the U. ## A Close Call.

What might have proved a serious or fatal shooting affray was narrowly averted last evening by the timely interference of officers. The trouble occurred on Commercial Row near the O. P. depot. A couple of well known men about town for some time past have held a grievance against each other. They met last night and renewed their dispute with the result that one drew a revolver and was in the act of pulling the trigger when the weapon was knocked from his hand by an officer who was within a few feet when the trouble commenced. No arrests.

Philippines Will Surrender.

The insurgents are about ready to surrender. Aguinaldo has arrived at the conclusion that he cannot take with him to any part of the island an army that could do anything against the United States forces, and having so concluded there is nothing remaining for him to do but waive his dignity and accept amnesty from our government. The United States commission has telegraphed to Washington for further instructions regarding terms of settlement with the Philippines.

Instructions have been sent to the commission by the President not to grant to Aguinaldo any more consideration than to other Filipinos; but the rights in government of the Filipinos who have been in arms should be preserved as though they had not been in rebellion, and any preference in government affairs will in the future depend upon their loyalty to the United States government.

TWO SIDES TO THE PICTURE.

A Newly-Married Editor's Experience and Opinion of a Week of Wedlock.

Brother Boober of the Elko Independent sizes up the tribulations and joys of matrimony in the following candid confession to his readers:

Nearly every one we meet asks us how we like married life. To sum it all up would take more time and space than we have at our command this afternoon. We will say, however, that in some things it does not come up to the standard set before us for many years by those who had tasted of its sweets. We find our freedom curtailed in every possible manner when in the house. Before we thrust our head in the matrimonial noose we could smoke in every room in the house and there was no one to say us nay. Now we are in luck if we can hit the pipe a clandestine lick in the kitchen. Then we could walk through the house without running into articles of furniture and without fear of breaking our neck. Now it is all changed, and we pick our way through the rooms as carefully as if walking on eggs. Then, too, we have toiling in the wood and water and do other chores that brings back to us the memories of boyhood. But of all things connected with our new state, the marketing and carrying of parcels through the streets takes the cake. The idea of an editor of a metropolitan paper like the Independent ordering a can of baking powder, for the boss to waste in a fruitless endeavor to produce biscuits fit for the editorial palate, is too absurd to think about. But we have done it without a murmur; had to, or else be yanked bald headed.

This may seem a rather gloomy picture of our first week of married life, but there is another side to the picture. A happy, smiling face and cheerful words greet us whenever we enter the sacred precincts where women reign. One week of home, where love is enthroned, is worth more to us than the thirty years we spent as a lonely bachelor. The pipe may be banished from the house, the rooms filled with furniture and our purse flattened out until it is as thin as a shadow, but as long as that pleasant face is there to welcome us home the weight of our evidence will be on the side of married life.

They were shipped from Grand Island, Nebraska, and laid over here for feeding from early Saturday evening until noon on Sunday. ## SCOTT HART IN KLONDIKE.

He Heads a Prospecting Party Into the Rocky Mountains.

W. A. Dolan writes to his daughter, Miss Ella Dolan, in Truckee, a letter from Dawson, N. W. T., under date of March 24th. The letter is published in the Republican, and contains the following concerning an old resident of Reno:

Angelo, an Italian from Truckee, lived at the Forks all winter. He and Scott Hart of Reno, Nev., (aged over 60 years) have started for the Rocky Mountains to prospect for quartz and placers. Hart bought two dogs from Jack McDougald (Billy McDougald's brother) for $100. Jack had just made the trip from Eagle City and has charge of some property on Gold Run for parties in Dawson. Angelo was to buy two dogs also. They will go up the Klondike river on the ice until the river forks and then go up the larger fork of the river. Old man Hart is an old prospector and will be the boss of the expedition. It is a very hard trip, but they are favored so far with the finest kind of weather. Should they find anything I will be one of the first to know about it. They will go between 150 and 250 miles before making a permanent camp. They took 1,200 pounds of grub, etc. Have Mr. Long send word to Henry Ritter, Elite Saloon, Reno, that Mr. Hart has started on his prospecting trip.

Interesting Events.

The race track presents quite a scene of activity each afternoon. The University boys who constitute the athletic contingent of that institution are in active training for the several feats of strength and agility that will constitute the field day exercises which will take place Friday next, when the Freshman class of the University of California will be their competitors for honors. The indications bid fair for a very interesting and exciting day, with more than even chances for the University of Nevada to come off victorious. The events in which the most interest is centered are the sixteen-pound hammer throw and one-mile bicycle race, in which Plaw has the inter-collegiate record for throwing the hammer and Fuller has the cycle record. The latter event is creating more than ordinary interest, as Keddie, our crackjacked rider, will represent Nevada, and when the wire is reached in the finish the victor will know that there is a man on a bike cutting wind just behind him.

The Filipinos' Last Stand

Late dispatches state that the Filipinos will make what is claimed a final stand at Bolomen, a village almost five miles southwest from San Fernando, the late Filipino capital. Six thousand of Aguinaldo's best troops have been reserved for this final stand by the Filipino dictator. The troops on the American side that will test the military metal of these superior fighters of the Filipino army will be the soldiers under Generals MacArthur and Lawton. The conflict will probably begin within the next forty-eight hours. The rebels are strongly entrenched and fortified to meet the advance of the American troops who will be led to combat the over-boastful valor of these well disciplined rebel troops, who are protected by breastworks made largely by Filipino women.

As near as can be learned, the beef commission has decided that canned maggots are good enough food for our soldiers.

Members of the New York four hundred make no more bones about swapping wires than boys do about swapping jack-knives.

One of Utah's State Senators has had a baby, but fortunately ours can't do such things. It would be well to add that the Utah Senator is a female.

We view the French Dreyfus case with a feeling akin to abhorrence, but do not dwell much upon our own embalmbed beef court.

There should be a lasting bond of sympathy between Quay and Barnes—each has escaped justice by the mere flirt of a coat-tail.

The Deadly Grip.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germ! Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to Pneumonia and Consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price 50 cent and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Last Evening's Lecture.

It is seldom that the people of Reno are privileged to listen to as talented a lecturer as Hon. O. W. Stewart, who talked in the Methodist church last evening. He is a logical and forcible speaker, capable of holding the rapt attention of his audience from the beginning to the close. His pictures are vivid, his illustrations most apt, and with the intermingling of humor and pathos he leads his listeners to forgetfulness of all but the theme. It is a lamentable fact that more could not have heard Mr. Stewart, and it is the hope of his listeners that he will return to Reno and hold forth in a hall large enough to accommodate the numbers who missed this treat.

Full Assessments of Lands.

O. H. Stoddard of Reno has been employed at Carson for a number of weeks making abstracts of land located in the State, for the use of the Assessors in the different counties. Nate Roff has also been at work making township plate, noting lands located, unlocated, forfeited, abandoned, etc., for the same purpose. This work is being done under an Act of the last legislature, making the Governor, Attorney General and Controller a sort of Revenue Board for the State, and appropriating $2,000 to secure a full assessment upon all lands located, as shown by the records in the Surveyor General's office.

Netted $125.

The two Cinderella entertainments netted $125. They were given under the auspices of the Women's Guild of the Episcopal church, who were to divide the surplus equally with Mr. Pavilla, as that gentleman devoted so much time to training the young people and made such a success of the entertainment, and the guild unanimously voted to allow him $75 for his services.
